Colored political cartoons of large size, 1836–1844. Mostly of the Jackson campaign, a few of Harrison campaign. Great rarities, as very few remain in existence. Personalities were indulged in to an extent that would probably cause lawsuits or personal violence at the present time. To illustrate, one of these cartoons represents Jackson as a dead jackass; a priest with crucifix begging in Irish brogue for the safe passage of his soul through purgatory, while the devil is flying down to carry him off. No duplicates. A desirable lot. 60 pcs. Lot for 25.00.

"The Dance of Death." A remarkable series of 20 pen sketches elaborately done and quaint in conception. 10x14 inches each. Valuable. 5.00.
